Life After Passion

Busted! Not long ago my wife caught me staring aimlessly out into space and asked, "What are you thinking Pat?" Easter is only a few weeks away and in preparation of this article, I caught myself staring into the past. What was I thinking?

Do you remember when the movie, "The Passion of the Christ" was released in 2004? I am not kidding, I think about the impact of this movie every Easter. The operative word in that epic movie title is "passion". It depicts a time of enormous suffering that our Lord endured during the last week of His earthly life. Luke said in Acts 1:3, "To whom He showed Himself after his passion by infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom." (KJV) Back to the movie. I remember clearly that theaters everywhere were being leased to churches who wanted to reach family and friends with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. All of us wanted those who attended to experience Christ's passion (suffering) in a personal way. While watching the movie I found myself praying, "Lord, open the window of their souls. Help them respond to You because of what they are seeing. Meet each person where they are in their spiritual journey and stir a hunger for You deep in their hearts." That is exactly what Jesus prayed in John 17:3, "Now this is eternal life: that they may know You, the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom You have sent." Through the biblical truth being portrayed in this movie many were saved and impacted for all eternity.

"The Passion of the Christ" movie and others like the recent series on the History Channel entitled, "The Bible" do not end with Jesus' horrific passion or suffering on the cross. HE IS RESURRECTED - glorious and flawless - never to die again. Let's rejoice in God for this wonderful truth. Years after Jesus was raised from the dead, John wrote these words, "When I saw him, I fell at his feet as though dead. Then he placed his right hand on me and said: "Do not be afraid. I am the First and the Last. I am the Living One; I was dead, and behold I am alive forever and ever! And I hold the keys of death and Hades." Revelation 1:17-18

What a passage. The hope of eternal life for the entire world is found in the One who brutally suffered, cruelly died, and amazingly came back to life. And it was for us! Because of the victory of the resurrection, Jesus holds the keys to death in His hands. He can and He will raise to life all those who put their trust in Him. Without the power of the resurrection, the passion of Christ's suffering and death are absolutely worthless. It becomes just another good story line for one more Steven Spielberg movie.

We are moving into one of the most celebrated events of our society and those of us who know Him, hold within our grasp the greatest truth that has changed this world. In the coming weeks, God will be giving us opportunities to share the passion of His suffering. We can give answers to those seeking, "What comes next?" It is the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

"Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ! In his great mercy he has given us new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, and into an inheritance that can never perish, spoil or fade kept in heaven for you . . ." I Peter 1: 3-4

From a Cluster Leader:

Unbelievers often criticize the passage in 2 Kings 2:23-25 in which Elisha cursed the mocking boys and two bears mauled 42 of them as violent and horrifying. Believers usually explain it as a warning not to mock the prophets of God.

But reading the OT prophets it is clear they regularly faced mocking, persecution and execution. Jesus referred to the "persecution of the prophets," in his final beatitude in Matthew 5:12. In Hebrews 11, the prophets are included among those who among other terrible tortures, "experienced mocking." (verses 32 and 36).

Is it possible more is going on in this story than a warning not to mock the prophets? Isn't bears mauling little boys for mocking a bit harsh?

Elijah's transfer to heaven and Elisha's unprecedented succession as the primary prophet in his place is followed by three accounts: the search for Elijah, the purifying of the waters and the cursing of the little boys.

The first account establishes that Elijah is gone. He is nowhere to be found and Elisha is the primary prophet in his place. The next two accounts establish the parameters of Elisha's prophetic ministry: it can be permanently purifying or tragically terrifying.

Before Elijah departed, Elisha asked him for a "double portion of his spirit." Elijah declared that Elisha "asked for a difficult thing."

Was it difficult for God to give or for Elijah to grant? Or was it difficult for Elisha to receive, to bear and to wield? When Elijah first encountered him in 1 Kings 19:19, he threw his cloak over Elisha, and Elijah asked, "What have I done to you?"

As the primary prophet in the darkest days of Israel's history, Elijah bore a heavy burden in his struggle against the sin, apostasy and idolatry of King Ahab and Queen Jezebel. On several occasions, he asked God to end his life.

In "passing his mantle" to Elisha, maybe Elijah knew "what he had done" to Elisha and how difficult it would be for him to receive a "double portion" of his prophetic spirit. Maybe he knew wielding such prophetic power could be permanently purifying or tragically terrifying.

If Elisha's ministry had continued this tragically terrifying pattern, it would have been frightening and fruitless. But after the episode of the boys and bears, nothing in the rest of Elisha's prophetic ministry comes close to the tragedy and terror of the boys and the bears. It mirrored, in many ways, the ministry of Elijah.

What had Elijah done in choosing Elisha as his successor, and granting him the "difficult thing" for which he asked? Who could carry on Elijah's ministry and wield a double portion of his prophetic spirit, with the power both permanently purifying or tragically terrifying?

What can this mean for us except that, if we do not participate in cluster groups, we might get eaten by bears?

took place January 4-6, followed by Sr. High SnoCamp January 18-20. Pine Trail camp (Saugatuck, Michigan) was our host for both retreats. The staff there does all they can to provide a friendly, fun, Christ-honoring atmosphere! Neither weekend had snow, so hats off to the staff for providing extra activities to make up for lack of snow! The primary purpose for each retreat was for spiritual growth to take place in each of the student's lives. We are grateful that was accomplished.

Jr. High Blizzard '13 was directed by Jason Wilson, and co-directed by Joan Vana. Our speaker was Geoff Grubb (Assistant Pastor in Chicago) - reminding us from Genesis that we are greatly valued by God! How great that God didn't abandon Adam & Eve, but loved them even in their broken world. Joan had some great 'minute to win it' ice breakers! Thanks to the worship band from Jason's church (Harvard Ave. Ev. Free Church in Villa Park), for leading us.

We had around 106 students & staff attend from 9 churches. Sr. High SnoCamp '13 was directed by Gary Lisle, and co-directed by Christian Constante. The theme was "Worth It!". Hoodies were provided for Youth Pastors/Directors, and extras were sold to whoever wanted them - a popular addition this year! Our speaker was Brent Batiste (Athletes In Action Missionary at NIU). He reminded us Jesus' story is worth telling! I'm still amazed God thought I was worth it, to have His Son come and suffer & die for me/us! I'm so glad He rose again 3 days later! We had fun throughout the weekend asking students how much things were 'worth' to them. Dave Pikel (me) led a Concert of Prayer on Saturday Night - providing multiple experiences to interact with the Lord individually and in groups. Thanks to the worship band (Resonate) for leading us, led by Nate Miller - from DeKalb/Sycamore area churches. We had around 140 students & staff attend from 11 churches.

"BREAKAWAY 2013"

Our annual jr. & sr. high evangelistic outreach event called "Breakaway" is coming up April 6-7 (9:00pm - 7:00am)! Joan Vana is our director this year. This event usually draws 600-700 students & leaders from 20-25 churches. Each year we try to check how many unbelievers are brought, and the average is 25-30% (last year was 32%)! Major work is being put into this event - especially the rally portion where we'll have some fun ice breakers, followed by music & message by Level 3:16 (they present the Gospel through a combination of music and personal testimonies that is fresh, biblical and high energy). We also welcome City Wide Christian Arts who spread the gospel through their performing arts. Then after pizza time, we'll go to three events for 2 hours each (Lifetime Fitness, Orland Bowl, & Odyssey Fun World). All that for just $45 - or $40 if register by March 22! Contact Joan Vana at joanlynnvana@hotmail.com for more info! Be sure to register ahead of time!

Pray for a great spiritual harvest - not just of salvations at the event, but also for solid gospel seed plants that the Christian students can follow up on in the future - for those not yet ready to respond positively to the gospel.

Sonlife Classic "Live2:6"

A group of ten Youth Pastors/Directors have been meeting every couple months (started in May 2011), going through Dann Spader's training on the life of Christ. It has been very valuable as we share what we've learned from Bible studies we've done in preparation for each gathering, then watching videos of Dann's training, and discussing how to implement that into our lives and ministries. I highly recommend this training available in a learning community format!

CHAPLAINCY

Helping CBAmerica Chaplains

I am often asked when I visit churches or Regional Meetings "How can we minister to our chaplains that are deployed?" In years past many care packages have been sent to our chaplains in the war zones. In the last several years as the economy has faltered very few packages have been sent. If your church or a group within your church is interested in assisting our troops let us know. We have six chaplains deployed to the Middle East these days and they would love to hear from your family or church.

There is a great resource for helping chaplains that are deployed. Here is info about them.

Adopt-a-Chaplain is a Christ-centered ministry that is dedicated to supporting our troops through the ministries of chaplains. By adopting chaplains and their families, we pray for and communicate with them regularly. We send care packages to chaplains serving in the Middle East and they distribute the items to our troops.

How To Contact Adopt- a- Chaplain:

E-mail: adoptachaplain@yahoo.com

Please make checks payable to Adopt- a- Chaplain, 222 Forrester Rd. Los Gatos, CA 95032. Telephone: 408-600-8884

CBAmerica Chaplaincy is developing a new area of ministry. We are working with our first Disaster Relief Chaplain. Special training is needed in order to be certified for this area of ministry. If you are interested in assisting in Disaster Relief settings contact our office and we can give you the needed information about training and certification.

I received a call from one of our chaplains who told me this story. Recently a fellow worker came to his office to talk and mentioned they were unhappy with their present faith group and local church and wanted to change. He gave them a list of several local churches this person could check out. Several weeks later he was told they had selected the local CBAmerica church and were enjoying the warm fellowship and felt very much at home.
